

LEED AND STAUF ADHESIVES

STAUF USA, LLC. ("STAUF") is proud of their record as a leader in the development of environmentally friendly products. STAUF is a founding member of the Association for the Control of Emission in Products for Flooring Installation (GEV), a European industry association, whose goals are to promote the safety of consumers, trades and the environment in the field of chemical construction materials. You will find that our products have received the GEV's highest certifications for meeting environmental standards, the coveted EMICODE EC 1®.

STAUF also a member of the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC), a 501(c)(3) non profit composed of leaders from every sector of the building industry working to promote buildings and communities that are environmentally responsible, profitable and healthy places to live and work. USGBC has developed the LEED® (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Green Building Rating System. The LEED Rating System is the nationally accepted benchmark for the design, construction, and operation of high performance green buildings.

With this document, STAUF declares that the products listed below comply with Rule 1168 of California's South Coast Air Quality Management District's Volatile Organic Compounds (VOC) limits. These are the mandatory requirements set by the USGBC LEED program for Indoor Environmental Quality.

These STAUF products can contribute to your qualification efforts for LEED certification under Indoor Air Quality Sections 3.1, 4.1, 4.2, and 4.3 as specified in the LEED 2009 for New Construction and Major Renovations. The intent of LEED credits is to reduce the quantity of indoor air contaminants that are odorous, potentially irritating, and / or harmful to both installers and occupants.
